

Disputes & Appeals Procedure

1. Club members who have concerns to raise with a coach, manager, or other officer of the club should, in the first instance, raise those issues with the individual in question.
2. If the matter is not resolved to their satisfaction the member should then raise the matter with the relevant section secretary who will have the matter considered by the section committee. Before considering the matter the committee should gather as much information as possible from all the parties involved in the dispute.
3. If the matter is still not resolved to the individual's satisfaction they should raise the matter in writing with the club secretary who will have the matter considered by the executive. The executive should have a full report from the relevant section committee before considering the matter. The executive should bear in mind that section administrators are responsible for the day to day running of the section. In accordance with the Moycullen Basketball Club's Constitution the executive has overall authority in the club.
